14. [] LEGISLATION Received a call from John Elliff, on the staff of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, who said he had received messages that we had tried to call him yesterday in response to his earlier request that we provide reaction to some material from his redraft of Title II of the charter legislation. He said he would have Pat Norton, also of the Committee staff, call us later to go over this. 25X1

15. [] LIAISON David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, visited Headquarters in connection with the Committee's interest in documents relating to the Halkin v. Helms case. [] OGC, briefed him on the Agency role so far in the litigation, after which Shaw reviewed some pertinent documents and transcripts. He indicated that he thought the Committee would decide that the documents were Committee property. We will meet with him again shortly for another review of all the pertinent documents.

16. [] LIAISON Accompanied [] OS, 25X1 to do a physical security survey of Room S-405, The Capitol. Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, requested the review and explained the proposed security procedures to be followed by Senate Ethics Committee personnel who are temporarily using the room and the secure facilities of the Senate Office of Classified National Security Information located next door. Steele made a few suggestions in connection with this and indicated that he will submit a written report to Sanders through the Office of Legislative Counsel.

17. [] LIAISON As a follow-up to an earlier request [] OS, and I visited the office of Michael Glennon, Legal Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to examine his safe. Steele advised Glennon's secretary, in his absence, that the safe did not meet current Government standards for a secure receptacle and provided a written description of an acceptable safe which the Committee should obtain before they will be authorized to receive classified documents.
